

We have more in common than you think!

Made in Italy

Masterclass of Italian Cuisine

“ Training 12 professional chefs of Italian restaurants in Lebanon ”

The Italian Trade Agency in Beirut organizes the yearly Masterclass of Italian Cuisine. Chef Paolo Amadori in 2018, and Chef Carlo Maria Ricci in 2019, Chef Ambassadors of the International School of Italian Cuisine-Alma, each held a two-day Masterclass dedicated to new trend and techniques in the Italian Cuisine, and to the optimal use of original Italian ingredients. 12 professional chefs of Italian restaurants in Lebanon participated. A special session was reserved to amateurs of Italian cuisine interested in learning the preparation of some iconic Italian dishes. A session was also reserved to the students of the Bachelor in Culinary arts offering and insight to the Italian cuisine.

The Italian Cultural Institute, in collaboration with different Lebanese and international partners such as La Sagesse University, Faculty of Hospitality Management also organized regularly courses of Italian cuisine. Four sessions were dedicated to the preparation and tasting of the best dishes of Italian cuisine, given by Italian chefs (such as Chef Nicola Offredi), who taught to the participants how to prepare Italian meals, from appetizers to desserts, through pasta and meats.

