International Support Group For Lebanon

The International Support Group for Lebanon (ISG), aimed at ensuring an effective support to the stability of the country, gathered for the first time in September 2013 on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly in New York. In attendance were the five permanent members of the UN Security Council (USA, Russia, UK, France and China) along with Italy, Germany, the European Union, the United Nations, and the Arab League.

The ISG Heads of Mission meet regularly in Beirut, under the coordination of the Office of the United Nations Special Coordinator for Lebanon (UNSCOL). Within the Group, Italy coordinates the support to the LAF, while Germany coordinates the Syrian refugees humanitarian crisis. The World Bank focuses on the Lebanese economy.

Italy organized the first international conference in support of the Lebanese security institutions, which took place in Rome on 17 June 2014. 43 delegations representing both States and International Organizations participated. Lebanon was represented by the then Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defense Samir Mokbel and the Minister of Foreign Affairs Gibran Bassil. On 28 October 2014 a Ministerial Conference devoted to the Syrian refugees crisis took place in Berlin.
